

mill on a bush (also) several bushels being in bounds of the said town of Bradford, the inhabitants of the town did meet together and consider of them making the rights of January 1689 or so and they did subscribe to them would give to authorize the setting up a corn mill and to jointly and severally engage the said town to the said whom and people to pay to them have subscribed to and working to the said whom and people to engage to to get up a good sufficient corn mill at the said town towards and for quenching their corn from time to time and they to be bound in these terms beyond any made sufficient to be set up and finished in September otherwise to make return of which given in the same kind and to let the town have of land and the said whom and people to likewise engage the shall be a sufficient payment for the said whom and the said whom about a mill from time to time kind of say and take about mentioned witness
 Joniell Cla
 John Porter
 Richard Thomas

This is a true copy of the agreement made between the inhabitants of the town of Bradford, and John Porter and Richard Thomas of a corn mill about as attest Shu Walker record.

The foregoing is an agreement entered into by the town with John Porter & Richard Thomas for building the first corn mill.