

At a legal town meeting of the inhabitants of Bradford March 9. 1693 John was chosen for Constable for the year ensuing Nathaniel for select men was chosen: Sgt Samuel Stickney. (99) John Boynton Richard Kimball Jr. Thomas Kimball and Samuel Henry: for town clerk was chosen David Haseltine for commissioners for assessments was chosen son Joseph Baly for surveyors of highways: and fences & woods was chosen Samuel Stickney Jr. William Savery: phillip atwood and Robert Haselt for tything men was chosen Lewis Kimball: John Simonds and William Haseltine: for seeing of waights and standards was chosen David Haseltine to see to all Symms occasions was chosen Richard Hall and Solomon wood

At a legal town meeting of the inhabitants of Bradford held July 27. 1694. It was then noted that there should be three assessors chosen to acte as by agreement and found they are required: then was chosen for assess David Haseltine Joseph Baly: Samuel Stickney son

At a legal town meeting meeting of the inhabitants of Bradford held March 12. 1694/5: John was chosen for Constable for the year ensuing Thomas Hardy son, at the same time was chosen for select men David Haseltine & Samuel Stickney ensue: Joseph Baly John Boynton and Lewis Samuel Haseltine, for town clerk was chosen David Haseltine: for a com missioner was chosen John Bony, for tything men was chosen phillip atwood Robert Haseltine and Samuel Bony, for surveyors of highways and fences & woods was John wood: Thomas Stickney: Nathaniel Gage and Gershom Haseltine

At a legal town meeting of the inhabitants and freholders of Bradford held March 10. 1694/6. then was chosen for Constable for the year ensuing Joseph Hardy son: for select men was then chosen David Haseltine & Joseph Baly Samuel Stickney son: Richard Kimball son: and Edward Carleton: David Haseltine son John Chalen for town clerk: John Boynton was then chosen for commissioner for tything men was chosen Nathaniel Gage: Richard Kimball Jr and phillip atwood for surveyors of highways and to view fences: was chosen: John Gage: John wood William Savery and John Haseltine: to see to all Symms occasions was chosen Richard Hall and Robert Haseltine son

At a legal town meeting of the freholders and inhabitants of the town of Bradford held March 9. 1697/8. John was chosen for Constable: William son for surveyor, at the same time was chosen for select men David Haseltine ensue: Joseph Baly son: John Boynton: ens John Bony: and Richard Kimball Jr at the same time were three assessors chosen: David Haseltine Joseph Baly John Boynton: then was chosen for town clerk: David Haseltine: for surveyors of the highways and fences & woods was chosen Daniel Gage: David Kimball son: and John Haseltine: to see to all Symms occasions was chosen Gershom Haseltine and Solomon wood: Robert Haseltine and Samuel Bony were chosen tything men