

of the fore-edge meeting was put to vote whether the town would make a bye law to prevent the sheep doing at large in said town and it passed in the affirmative that the bye should be kept upon the heels from the first of may to the last of September this law to continue the space of two years and no longer and it was ordered that the select men therefore should take especial care that they might be notified as soon as possible in such affairs and not any that ^{shall be} ~~shall be~~ the case of this law for the first offense he shall forfeit and pay the sum of £100 and be for each sheep impounded by those that are ~~to be~~ and one thing appears for the record of price and the case after all the after a meeting on the 10th of May 1737 by the Inhabitants of the town of Bradford that from the first of May to the last of September £10 for the space of two years from the Bay side of the town to the be allowed to go all sorts of D. Town & of any sheep or swine going all round it shall be lawful for any person or persons to imprison them & for every sheep or swine so imprisoned the owners or holders thereof shall pay for the price of the same as well as to the person or persons so imprisoning them & for the poundage thereof pound per head & for every other offence within the town of £10 or upwards of D. Town or Lane the higher thereof. The owners to go against this was voted & paid in the D. Town to be allowed or by for the Inhabitance of the town of D. & for 2 terms above. The fine & for them to be recovered in the best way & manner as is all-ready provided for the regulating of by laws at a legal town meeting held on the 10th of May 1737 for the Inhabitance of Bradford Court John Huttons moderator to have the report of the Committee that went to discover Robert General about burning the school house and he offered to give the town 100 pounds and to be put to vote whether the town would accept of it and it passed in the negative at a legal town meeting held by the Inhabitance of Bradford on the 21st of September 1737 Court John Huttons moderator it was put to vote whether the town would give leave to the select men to give an order to the treasure to draw out six pounds for the Committee to carry on the Robert Kimball and be accountable to the select men and it passed in the affirmative and James Bailey served on the 21st of September the 21 / 1737