

At a Legal meeting of the Inhabitants of the Town of Bradford May 3rd 1738 John Rumball was Drown out for a Queryman to Ladue at Yorks Court

At a Legal Townmeeting of the Inhabitants of the Town of Bradford held on the Eighteenth day of May 1738 Deacon Jeremiah Hardy Moderator was then Chosen to provide the Town a Schoolmaster for this present year
It was put to vote wheather the Town would mend the High ways this year according as they have done the five years last past and if passed in Affirmative and each of the Subvager take his part as they were set out to him
It was put to vote wheather the Town would within that the Query called Dales Ferry should be removed to Joseph Mulliken and it passed in the Affirmative.

At a Legal Townmeeting held on the 2nd day of June 1738 Deacon Richard Baley Moderator it was put to vote wheather the Town would give Liberty to those persons whose Landy given Road Crooses over of Road that is Layed out across the parsones Land by Lent Rumball to Andover Road to hang Conduant East gate on Each side of their Land and it passed in the Affirmative.

Taken up and impounded Twelve Swine going at Large by Joseph Tricheson and John Hopkinton on 4th Eleventh day of November 1738 and are marked as followeth viz being of a white color with black spots on some of them one marked with a Swallowe tale on 4th Right ear with a half penny on 4th under side of 4th Left ear 3 hoggs marked with a Swallowe tale on the Right ear and two marked with half penny or slit on the upper side of each ear and one marked with a Swallowe tale on each ear one pigge marked with a Swallowe say Right ear and four ~~hoggs~~ piggs about three month old not marked

The Subscribers scilicet men of Rowley and Bradford with other meet persons legally qualified have met and prelamated on the Line between said Town and owned and acknowledged the Towns formly agreed on as the Law Direct: November 24th 1738

Jonathan Doughton
Ebenezer Stuart
Samuel Just
William Hardy
Edmund Hardy